Seventy-Two Years: Put It in Order

Timeline sequencing · Skill: Why seventy-two years?

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

WHAT I CAN DO TODAY

I can put the women's suffrage movement in order and explain why it took so long.

Alice Paul sews the 36th star on the suffrage ratification banner — photograph, 1920, public domain (Library of Congress)

Directions

Women first demanded the vote in 1848 and won it nationally in 1920. Put the events in order, check your work, then explain one turning point.

1 Put it in order

Number the events from first (1) to last (7). Then check your work to see the years.

ORDER	EVENT
_____	Suffragists march in a huge procession in Washington, D.C., the day before President Wilson takes office
_____	Women meet at Seneca Falls, New York, and sign the Declaration of Sentiments
_____	Tennessee becomes the 36th state to ratify the 19th Amendment
_____	Wyoming Territory gives women the right to vote
_____	The Silent Sentinels picket the White House and many are arrested
_____	Two rival suffrage groups join to form one national association
_____	Illinois women win the right to vote for president

© 2026 ShadowDog Digital Studios. All Rights Reserved. · Paper copy · audio, video, and answer checks are online

2 The turning point

Choose the event you think was the biggest turning point.

Which event, and what changed because of it?

3 Did the 19th Amendment include all women?

Choose the best answer.

After 1920, which group of women still could NOT vote in most places?

- ◯ A. White women in the North
- ◯ B. Black women in the South, who faced poll taxes, tests, and violence
- ◯ C. Women in Illinois
- ◯ D. Women in Wyoming

Finished? Turn in this paper the way your teacher asks.

© 2026 ShadowDog Digital Studios. All Rights Reserved. · Paper copy · audio, video, and answer checks are online