WHAT I CAN DO TODAY

I can place Waukegan's history in order and connect our town to the big stories of Unit 3.

Washburn & Moen Mills, Waukegan, Ill. — photograph, Detroit Publishing Co., c. 1900, public domain (Library of Congress)

Directions

Go through the Waukegan on Stage deep dive first. Then study the photo, put the events in order, and connect our town to Unit 3.

1 Read the photo

Name three things you can see.

What does the photo tell you about work in Waukegan?

2 Put Waukegan in order

Number the events from first (1) to last (6). Then check your work to see the years.

ORDER	EVENT
_____	The Genesee Theatre opens on Genesee Street
_____	Benjamin Kubelsky (Jack Benny) is born to immigrant parents
_____	Waukegan's steelworkers join the nationwide steel strike
_____	Ray Bradbury is born in Waukegan
_____	The restored Genesee Theatre reopens
_____	A teenage Benny plays violin in the Barrison Theatre's pit orchestra

3 Which Unit 3 story?

Match each piece of Waukegan history to the big Unit 3 story it belongs to.
